

IF IT SAVES ONE LIFE...

The Federal Liberal Government claims “if it saves one life, it’s worth it” when talking about the federal gun registry.

Government Contributions to Breast Cancer Research (1998) <sup>1</sup>	$3,962,000.00
Government Costs for Federal Gun Registry (1998-1999 Fiscal Year) <sup>2</sup>	$133,506,371.00

Lives Lost to Breast Cancer (1998) <sup>*1</sup>	6,824
Lives Lost to Firearms Related Causes (1998) <sup>3</sup>	151

FACT: 45 times more people die from breast cancer every year than from firearms.

FACT: The Federal Liberal government spends 33 times more on registering hunting rifles than it does on Breast Cancer research.

Why aren't women's lives worth more than this?

1 Source: Canadian Cancer Society

2 Source: Access To Information Requests by MP Garry Breitkreuz

3 Source: Statistics Canada

For More Information Please Visit <http://www.nfa.ca/> or call (403) 640-1110